DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-17 are pending and subject to restriction requirement.

Restriction

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-4 and 8-11, drawn to a method for differentiating osteoclast precursor cells.

Group II, claim(s) 5 and 6, drawn to a method for isolating osteoclast precursor cells.

Group III, claim(s) 7, drawn to an osteoclast precursor cell.

Group IV, claim(s) 12, drawn to an osteoclast cell.

Group V, claim(s) 13 and 14, drawn to a method for screening agents by using osteoclast precursor cells.

Group VI, claim(s) 15 and 16, drawn to a method for screening agents by using osteoclast cells.

Group VII, claim(s) 17, drawn to an agent for metabolic bone diseases.

Art Unit: 1651

The inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 and under PCT Rule 13.2 because this application contains⁵ claims to more than one of permissible combinations of categories of invention and because the same or corresponding special technical features within a permissible combination of categories of invention is already known in the art, thus, the claims are lacking the same or corresponding special technical features which makes a contribution over the prior art.

37 CFR1.475. Unity of invention before the International Searching Authority, the International Preliminary Examining Authority and during the national stage.

(a) An international and a national stage application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept ("requirement of unity of invention"). Where a group of inventions is claimed in an application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression "special technical features" shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.

(b) An international or a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories:

- (1) A product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; or
- (2) A product and a process of use of said product; or
- (3) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; or
- (4) A process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or
- (5) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process.

© If an application contains claims to more or less than one of the combinations of categories of invention set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, unity of invention might not be present.

(d) If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application and the first recited invention of each of the other categories related thereto will be considered as the main invention in the claims, see PCT Article 17(3)(a) and § 1.476(c).

(e) The determination whether a group of inventions is so linked as to form a single general inventive concept shall be made without regard to whether the inventions are claimed in separate claims or as alternatives within a single claim.

For example: the claimed inventions of groups III, IV and VII are directed to three distinct products such as an osteoclast precursor cell, an osteoclast cells and an agent for metabolic bone diseases. Each product as claimed is obtained by a distinct method of making by using various culture media as claimed and by using screening protocols as claimed. Each claimed product is intended for a different method of use as claimed. Further, cellular products such as osteoclast precursor cell and differentiated osteoclast cells are known the prior art, for example: see WO 96/07733 at page 29, lines 32-34. Therefore, the inventions listed above are distinct and they do not relate to a single general inventive concept as explained above.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).
